HINES AND BREESE TOGETHER ONCE MORE AT THE AUDITORIUM

Once again that inimitable combination of Johnny Hines and Edmund Breese is to be seen Friday and Saturday nights at the Auditorium Theatre, Sidney, in "The Live Wire," a First National picture. This screen pair may justly be termed the Damon and Pythias of screen-dom since the veteran Breese has supported the comedy star in every picture but three the First National star has made since he entered the feature class in 1921.

Mr. Breese was cast with Hines in "Burn 'Em Up Barnes," "Sure-Fire Flint," "Luck," "The Speed Spook," "The Early Bird" and now in Hines' latest fun-riot, "The Live Wire." Known from one end of the country to the other for his dramatic performances on the legitimate stage during a period of over thirty years, in which he appeared in "The Lion and the Mouse," "The Master Mind," "So This Is London," "Bluebeard's Eighth Wife" and scores of others, Ed. Breese brings to "The Live Wire" all the whisicalities, the deftness, the finesse and the life-like interpretations for which he is so much revered and gives a most capital performance as Hines' handy man and all-around foil.

"The Live Wire" suits Johnny Hines to a nicety, for it gives him one of those character roles that he is always anxious to portray. The hardships and triumphs of the circus performer who loses his stardom and goes down the ladder to taste the dregs of life and then rehabilitates himself through his business acumen and wins the girl of his dreams is all told with a reality that makes "The Live Wire" a most enjoyable production for the entire family.

Her: "Then walk!"
Him: "Give me my compact. I have car fare in it."
Her (again): "Oh no you haven't. I bought gas with that two miles back."

OFFICERS OF POULTRY CLUBS ARE ELECTED

Sidney School Boys' Poultry Club officers: Club organizer—Mr. Ramsay; president—Austin Wilson; secretary—Robert Homewood.

Sidney School Girls' Poultry Club officers: Club organizer—Mr. Ramsay; president—Muriel Holdridge; secretary—Winifred Taylor.

Club work in home gardening is under consideration.

SINGER CO. SHIPS TWO SCOWS OF TIES

Special to the Review
GANGES, March 4.—The Singer Tie Company, with its various mills is making Salt Spring Island a busy place. Two big scowloads of ties were shipped, one from Ganges and the other from Vesuvius Bay. Mr. Phil de Bruyne has moved a mill onto Mr. R. Wright's property and will cut ties there. Mr. H. Jones has moved his mill on Mr. Collin's property to a new location. Mr. Jones also has recently put up a new cottage near the mill and has moved in.

CHILDREN CAN USE HALL

Special to the Review
GANGES, March 4.—The Ganges school children will now have the use of the Mahon Hall on Monday afternoons for basketball practice. The Ganges Basketball Club has given them the use of their baskets and ball and the Agricultural Association are allowing them to use the hall on Monday afternoons free of charge.

WHITE HOUSE SCENE OF 500 DRIVE 25TH

Special to the Review
FULFORD HARBOR, March 4.—Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Eaton gave a very jolly 500 drive at the White House on Thursday evening, Feb. 25th. Play started soon after nine o'clock in the dining-room and nine tables were used. During the evening music was enjoyed and cards were also played in the sitting room for those preferring other games besides "500." The rooms looked very spring-like with the prettily-arranged bowls of daffodils scattered about. Mrs. Eaton and Miss Smith provided very dainty refreshments which were served after the drive was over. Everyone had a good time and thoroughly enjoyed the evening. Mr. Eaton was master of ceremonies and was assisted in his duties by Master Kenzie Eaton. The prize-winners were: Ladies' first, Mrs. C. Mollet; second, Mrs. Tom Akerman. Men's first, Mr. Frank Aske; second, Mr. Kenneth Mollet. The guests numbered about 50 in all.

SAANICHTON DEBATING TEAM WINS

Special to the Review
SAANICHTON, March 4.—An interesting debate was held in the Saanichton United Church under the auspices of the Young People's Society. The debating teams were Mr. G. C. Somerville, Miss C. McNab and Miss L. Styan for Saanichton, and Mr. Stuart Hill, Miss L. Watts and Mr. E. Knight represented Sidney. The subject matter was upon the resolution: "Resolved that the League can and must abolish war." The Saanichton team took the affirmative.

Rev. W. W. Lees acted as chairman with the following acting judges: Mr. R. H. Hope, Brentwood; Mr. Geo. Bayley, Saanichton, and Mr. E. R. Hall, Experimental Station. The decision of the judges was announced by Mr. R. H. Hope it being in favor of the Saanichton team. Mr. Hope complimented both teams on the manner the debate was conducted and felt that they could not help but improve the knowledge of themselves and others by getting up debates of this kind. He expressed delight at seeing so many young people present and hoped that there would be more such debates.

After a short musical program refreshments were served by the Saanichton young people and so concluded a very enjoyable and instructive evening.

VICTORIA MAN IS INJURED IN EXPLOSION

Special to the Review
GANGES, March 4.—On Friday morning at 8 a.m. while cleaning out the carbide deposit in a carbide gas buoy at Montague Harbor, Galiano Island, the tool that Mr. Raymond Grace, of Victoria, one of the crew of the Government lightship tender Estevan, used seems to have struck a spark which ignited some of the gas still in the light buoy, which exploded with great force, tearing the clothes off Grace from his waist up and burning him severely—he is in danger of losing his eyesight. The Estevan rushed as quickly as the fog permitted to Ganges Harbor and the burnt seaman was hurried with all care to the Lady Minto Hospital. Dr. E. H. Lawson was called and is doing everything possible to relieve the sufferer. We hope he will soon recover and that his eyesight may be spared.

FESTIVAL DANCE DEBATE ON MARCH 17TH AT "MARRIED LIFE VERSUS SINGLE" BERQUIST HALL

The dance arranged by the North Saanich Social Club to commemorate the festival of St. Patrick, patron saint of Ireland, is now in course of organization.

Ray Kinlock and his four-piece orchestra have been engaged and promise to intermingle in the evening's program many of the old folk songs of the Emerald Isle.

Special arrangements have been made with Mr. Halseth to have the dancing hall cleaned with the vacuum prior to the dance.

The committee feel that the past performances of the club have been such as will assure the patrons of a dance extraordinary.

The proceeds of the dance will be devoted to the children's fund for the encouragement of sport.

PENDER ISLAND, March 4.—The Young People's meeting was held on Wednesday evening in the club room. The program consisted of a very interesting debate on "Married Life vs. Single," games and charades. The debate, which was undertaken by Mr. Basil Phelps and Miss Helen Boyd, affirmative, and Mr. Will Hoeson and Dr. Unsworth, negative, was of a very humorous nature, and much enjoyed by those present. The affirmative won by popular vote. Mr. Will Hoeson, convener of the recreational committee, handled that part of the program with much success. Miss Vera Simpson was elected to take Mrs. Johnston's place as convener of the devotional committee.

"Crane's Hollow"

A Tale of the Pacific Coast

By CONSTANCE E. ALLEN

THIRD INSTALLMENT (Publishing Rights Reserved.) (Copyright, 1926.)

The sounds died away as the moon rose. The beams filtered through the branches of the trees and, in the midst of the undergrowth I saw two tall black figures flitting from place to place in pursuit of each other.

Dodo expressed no excitement over these occurrences and, strange as they were they passed from my mind when, on breaking the seal across the door I found the coffee steaming beside the hearth as before.

That night the vision of the dream-woman was so vivid she bent and pressed a kiss upon a scar that ran across my temple that I believed it more than a dream. The mouth that breathed so close to mine was like a scarlet poppy and the great soft eyes held in their depths such a world of tenderness that the diamonds of my imagination were outshone.

I tried to return her kiss before the dream faded, but I saw nothing except Dodo whining her joy at finding me awake.

As the days went by I could not disguise from myself the fact that the shadow of the maple was falling upon me. Even Dodo wearied of my companionship and absented herself for hours at a time, showing reluctance at obeying my whistle. Her vigilance was a necessity to me for, one evening I found an incriminating pile of chips beside the maple where Michael Jude had had the audacity to commence an attack upon its trunk.

And, all the time, ghostly hands continued to brew my coffee though I sprinkled flour upon the floor, wove a web across the hearth and wired the shutter of my camera to the handle of the kettle, without success. The cries and the shots were repeated by the blood-red sea, when the wind rose the skull rattled drearily from his perch in the top of the maple. I wondered what kind of a time he would play when a storm swept over the hollow. I could see that we were in for a Gale for, from aloft in the blue I had seen born, clouds that formed themselves into Zeppelins. Before they broke I would dislodge my grinning friend.

With this resolve fresh in my mind I brought my rifle from the house and stood under the maple. It was swaying in the rising wind and the skull beat an uneasy rhythm as it swayed.

I looked up at him as he stared down at me: "Tell me where the diamonds are hidden," I adjured him, "and I will give you a decent burial."

A hideous groan was the only answer that he vouchsafed me.

At the first shot he rolled to my feet. As his jaws opened I sprang forward to catch the words he was about to utter but, as I bent my head a blast of wind swept him under the roots of the maple. Sheets of hail followed and I was forced to take shelter in the house.

The fire was glowing and the coffee was steaming beside it. Dodo and I prepared ourselves to spend an evening alone with the storm, but as darkness fell it increased in fury and I was debating the advisability of barricading the windows against the onslaughts of hail when, pressed close to the glass as though seeking admittance, I saw the face of my dream!

The eyes met mine for an instant and then disappeared. We were immediately summoned by an imperious knocking on the door. Dodo ran across the room begging me to open it and as I withdrew the bolts and bars a bundle of wet oilskins blew into my arms.

Between us we secured the door once more and then we turned and looked at each other.

"You must forgive me," panted our visitor, "but my boat dashed itself to pieces on the beach."

Assuring her that I was only too happy to be of service to her I led her to the fire and removed her outer garment and her heavy sea-boots for her hands were numbed by the icy water. As I took off her sou'wester a coronet of plaits fell and hung on each side of her face.

She seated herself before the blaze while Dodo nestled beside her—nervous with happiness.

FULFORD TEAMS DEFEAT GANGES IN BASKETBALL IN THRILLING CONTESTS

ENTERTAINED FRIDAY EVE AT "SHORE ACRES"

Last Wednesday evening Miss Frances D. Christie entertained at "Shore Acres." Miss Christie was assisted in entertaining her guests by Mrs. S. K. Halseth. During the early part of the evening progressive 500 was played, the first prize being won by Mrs. J. Wilkinson and Mr. A. Thompson; the booty prizes were carried off by Miss Winnifred Fatt and Mr. J. E. McNeil. The latter part of the evening was spent in dancing, the music being supplied by Miss Nellie Livesey and the "Rogers" radio. The dainty supper was served in the spacious dining-room and was much enjoyed. The table decorations were beautiful, being carried out in pale pink and green, with spring flowers. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Halseth, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McNeil, Capt. and Mrs. C. R. Wilson, Mrs. H. Knight, Mrs. C. Wilkinson, the Misses A. Corfield, N. Livesey, J. McNaught, W. Fatt, F. Christie and Messrs. A. Thompson, R. Davis, J. Rankin, H. Watkins, H. Bishop, J. Armstrong and E. Knight.

SERVICE HELD IN HONOR LATE MRS. A. CAYZER

Special to the Review
GALIANO, March 4.—At the memorial service given by the Rev. Porter on Sunday at the Mission Hall for the late Mrs. Alfred Cayzer every seat was occupied by many friends, including a large number of children, from Mayne and Galiano as a last silent tribute. Briefly the vicar outlined the great loss the Island felt and especially the children, whom she loved so well and for whose sake she so willingly helped as Sunday school teacher for the past 20 years. She had taken a kindly interest as teacher whenever one was needed and when unable to continue the Sunday school she still held a small Bible class at her home for her little circle of children.

Mourned by all who knew her she will always be remembered for her loving thoughts of others. She lived a life of service and the world was better for her kind and loving personality. She leaves a beautiful example for others.

The collection will be sent to the Children's Solum as a fitting token to one who will always be remembered as the children's friend.

Considerable property is changing hands around Sidney these days. Let us assist you in making a deal.

PIANOFORTE RECITAL WAS ENJOYABLE

The pianoforte pupils of Miss Margaret Cochran gave a very enjoyable recital on Friday evening of last week in Matthews' Hall. The hall was filled with parents and friends who were very much interested in the excellent program and Miss Cochran is to be congratulated on the proficient manner in which the pupils performed. The hall was prettily decorated with Japanese plum blossoms, daffodils and crocuses. The tea-table looked pretty decorated with wildflowers and was presided over by Mrs. C. C. Cochran, assisted by Mrs. J. J. White and Mrs. G. A. Cochran.

The pupils who rendered this excellent entertainment were Margaret and Doris Mitchell, of Keating; Beattie Turgoose and Horace Straight, of Saanichton; Elizabeth Campbell, Victoria; Dulcie Brethour and Gwen Buchanan, Sidney. Miss Cochran presented with a large bouquet of violets by little Jean Straight.

FULFORD HARBOR, March 4.—The Fulford Hall was crowded on Saturday night, Feb. 27th, when about 200 people turned up to watch the matches played between the Fulford and Ganges basketball teams. The tussle between the girls' teams was thrilling to say the least of it, but Ganges had the real "thrills," for the Fulford girls were leading in the first and second half from beginning to end and instead of Ganges winning "as usual" with a sweeping score, the tables were reversed and our local girls won 27-9.

In the boys' match Fulford had an easy time with Ganges and lead off with a number of baskets (more thrills for Ganges!) and it was not until about two minutes before the end of the first half that the visitors managed to register three points while the local boys had 24 to their credit. In the second period Ganges' score rose a little and Fulford's soared a lot, while the whole audience gave advice and encouragement wholesale, to both sides. Fulford, however, won the game to the tune of 42-13. Ray Morris was high scorer for his team, having made 20 points and Cyril Wagg secured most of Ganges' score. The line-up of the teams were:

Girls—Fulford: I. Dohlman, Tillie Akerman, Olive Rogers, Jean Hepburn, Mrs. E. Lumley. Ganges: M. Pengelly, L. Rogers, V. Akerman, M. Garner, V. Byrne.

Boys—Ganges: Roy Gibson, C. Wagg, Joe Akerman, Jesse Bond, T. Garner, Fulford: Ray Morris, Art Hepburn, Jimmy Akerman, Verner Douglas, Wilfred Douglas.

Tommy Isherwood refereed the boys' game and Frank Downey for the girls.

Mr. Parfitt's orchestra supplied a lively and much-appreciated program for the dance which followed.

Members of the Basketball Club served supper. The sum of $72 was taken at the door.

"SHOWER" FOR PENDER ISLAND BRIDE IS GIVEN

Special to the Review
PENDER ISLAND, March 4.—"Valley Farm," the home of Mrs. V. W. Menzies, was the scene of a magnificent "shower" given in honor of the new bride, Mrs. J. B. Aitken. The event proved a great surprise for the guest of honor, who was presented with a large decorated basket of useful and practical gifts. The guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Unsworth, Mrs. Fry, Mrs. J. MacDonald, Mrs. P. Stebbings, Mrs. Aitken, Mrs. R. S. Corbett, Mrs. H. Bowerman, Mrs. Newnham, Mrs. R. Auchterlonie, Mrs. W. Johnston, Miss Vera Simpson, Miss Helen Boyd, Miss Beth Brackett, Miss Hilda Logan, Miss Kathleen Symes and the Misses Elsie, Edith and Mae Bowerman.

NEW KEATING FRUIT GROWERS ORGANIZATION

Special to the Review
SAANICHTON, March 4.—Following a lively meeting of the Saanich Fruit Growers' Association in the Temperance Hall on Monday, Feb. 22, resignations were tendered by three directors.

At the West Road Hall, Keating, on Thursday, Feb. 25, a meeting of an organization known as The Keating Fruit Growers' Co-operative Association was held. It was hoped to sign up a number of those who had expressed themselves as dissatisfied with the present organization. Mr. A. E. Gale, Centre Road, was elected president and Mr. J. H. Sutton, to act as secretary pro tem.

There is some talk of a new company, putting in a boat service for the Gulf Islands, making the trip from Sidney to Vancouver.

SIDNEY, VANCOUVER ISLAND, B.C., MARCH 4, 1926.

A DECADE AGO

Ten years ago, although it seems but yesterday, they were showing moving pictures in ten-cent theatres. Look about your own town, your own neighborhood, and note the changes ten years have made. Perhaps there are children in your home that weren't there ten years ago and now they are going to school.

Ten years ago there was the greatest war in all history going on in Europe. That war is beginning to be looked upon as ancient history to the boys and girls in their teens. Take a look at any of the high-priced automobiles of ten years ago. They look like the Ark compared with the 1926 models of any $2,000 car. Put a record on your ten-year-old phonograph and compare it with the beautiful music that floats through your home when you tune in on a good station on your radio. What has become of the player piano? Anybody pumping out "Alexander's Ragtime Band" on it now? Did you see any girls smoking cigarettes in the hotel dining rooms, ten years ago? What about their bare knees, rolled stockings and short skirts, to say nothing of the bobbed heads?

Yea, boy, we may not know where we're going but we're on our way and ten years was only yesterday to most of us.

ECONOMY AND PURE STINGINESS

Economy to a lot of people has a much broader meaning than just pure stinginess. The man who has just that narrow idea of economy usually finds himself doing business in a bum town or in a very limited business field. Economy does not mean doing without those things that are necessary for good business or the saving of a dime when it could be wisely spent in ways that will not only affect his business but that of his fellow merchant. It is economy to give as much as it is to save those few dollars that came within one's grasp.

EVOLUTION

The "gallus," discarded by men, are being taken up as a fad by women. With their breeches dragging the ground, men now actually need 'em. Women, with their skirts above their knees, do not. Yet such is the inconsistency of fashion.

There are men who like long skirts and men who like short ones, but Jack Greenwood thinks, the only way for the women to suit each individual taste is to wear their skirts on rollers so that they can raise and lower them like window shades.

Mail order houses made millions of dollars last year — most of it out of communities where the merchants don't appreciate advertising.

SIDNEY SOCIAL CLUB NOTES

The regular weekly 500 party of the Sidney Social Club was held in their club rooms on the 24th of February. The winners for the evening were: Mrs. A. Crichtley, Mr. W. Crossely, Mr. T. Lidgate and Mr. W. Watson, who won on the cut from No. 1 table.

After the cards refreshments were served by the hostesses for the evening, Mrs. A. Crichtley and Mrs. R. W. MacKay.

The card party for the evening of the 3rd of March was called off and a visit paid to the West Saanich Women's Institute at Brentwood Bay, taking in their fortnightly military 500, where a very pleasant evening was spent.

Miss Thain's orchestra has been engaged for the dance to be held on Easter Monday, the 5th of April, and a program embracing both old and new dances has been arranged by the music committee. This will give all a chance to enjoy themselves and dance their favorite dances.

"Something Sensible"

Melody: "Her Bright Smile Haunts Me Still."

Passed by "THE CENSORS."

It seems years since last we met,
And today it looked like rain;
How I wish the summer time
Was with us once once again.

Then will "Nancy" bob my hair,
And my eyebrows shingle too,
And my toenails marcel wave—
Heavens! the town will go coo-coo!

Oh! I would I were a bird,
With a tail of carmine hue,
Then the girls would smile on me,
And say, "Bobby," how'd'ye do!

I will be "some" swell, you bet,
In my pants of crepe de chine,
And the band will play for hours—
"Here comes Mr. Hallowe'en!"

It's too bad that I'm a male
With a neck like the giraffe—
Say! cut out that solemn mien,
'Cause I know you'd love to laff.

Nance can work a wondrous change
On a full or empty head—
Gosh! it's almost twelve o'clock,
So I guess I'll hit for bed—
Go-o-o-d Night!

Friday—They was a lady stops at are house this evening witch she looked like a Tourist and she was all dirty and must up she ast if she cud borry sum warm water to get warshed up in. She sed she had just had a pritty Severe shaking up and Ant Emmy sed. What was the matter miss have you ben in a Aksident and the lady replied and sed No mam I wassent in a Aksident but I was in a Ford. Pa says sum 1 is all ways a nocking the fords and sum of them nock thereselfs.

Saturday — Pa went and made what the yung frech teecher calls a Fox Pass agen tonite. Ma and pa and Ant Emmy includeing me went down to see the new baby at Mr. Bossers house and Mrs. Bosser ast pa and sed Well witch side of the house do you think the baby looks like. Pa sed Well Mrs. Bosser he does look kinda queer but as fur as I can see he dussent axually look like the side of a house a tall in fact I cant tell just what he does look like. We diddnt stay very long after all.

Sunday—Pa was a trying to make good with Mr. Bosser today about what he sed about his baby lass nite. He ast Mr. Bosser and sed Well Bosser a baby does britten up the home dont they. and Mr. Bosser sed Yes in deed they do britten up the home in fact we got to keep the leckrick lites a going about a hundred percent of the time and sum times morn that sum nites.

Munday—Ant Emmy had us all gessing for a wile today. She ast pa if he new mutch about the price of cars and she ast him did he no how mutch a Jiffy costed she sed it must be a vury popalar car. Pa sed he never herd tell of suchy ottomobile. She sed Well if you wood read sum of the modern novels you wood hear about it because you offen read of where sum one goes away and then cums back in a Jiffy.

Tuesday—Mr. McDode was trying to sell ma his gote today he sed why if you have a gote he will all ways keep yure grass short in the summer time. Ma sed well I aint a going to spend enny munney for a Gote as long as I got my present husband. I xpeck its a good thing pa was away at the time.

Wednesday—Pa was pritty slick this evening. we had tuk the warshing to are warsh lady and pa turned a corner and nocked a fella down but he just kep rite on going and never even give the fella a chanst to oppolozize even.

Thursday—I give Jane sum candy

beeds to ware round her neck a cuple days ago but she tuk em off today and sed they was to dirty to ware enny longer. So we eat them all up.

A thing of beauty has joy rides forever.

Every woman who runs down a man isn't driving an automobile.

This would be a good sign for some of the paved roads around here: "What's Your Hurry — The Morgue's Open All Night."

CREDULOUS

An angry purchaser dashed into the second-hand car plant.

"You told me that auto would work like a charm," he began, "but—"

"Now, my dear sir," replied the salesman, "I never supposed you were one of those superstitious persons who believe in charms."

BLACKHEADS

Don't squeeze blackheads—dissolve them. Get two ozs. of peroxide powder from any drug store and rub with hot, wet cloth briskly over the blackheads. They simply dissolve and disappear by this safe and sure method.

have a hard time enforcing them from under an automobile.

Borrowed Epitaphs

Tom Jones has gone to heavenly heights; He tried to drive without his lights. Jack Hayes this busy life forsakes; He never would relime his brakes.

Here's all that's left of Amos Bossing; He tried to beat it to the crossing.

No more from Brown are earthly smiles; He took the curve at forty miles.

Ted Small has gone to his abode; He kept the middle of the road.

Here lies our friend, poor Tony Dix; For booze and gasoline won't mix!

Jim Henry's friends are all bereft; He made a short turn to the left.

A signal for a left turn by an enclosed car is usually a hand-out.

Automobiles are repossessed, reconditioned or renewed, but used furniture will always be second hand.

A born cake-eater is one who thinks the girl is referring to the car when she says "stop."

The jack is useful. It is used to lift a car, a mortgage, and the family's social standing.

Judge—"Why did you run down this man in broad daylight on a perfectly straight stretch of road?"

Prisoner—"Your Honor, my windshield was almost totally obscured with Safety First stickers."

Notes By The Way
By OBSERVER

The authorities of the State of Washington are taking steps to protect the wild flowers of the state. A recent law passed by both houses of the legislature makes it a misdemeanor to cut any wild flower or shrub within 300 feet of the highway without the consent of the owner. Cars bearing flowers may be legally stopped by traffic officers and passengers may be questioned regarding the origin of their wild flower decorations.

Several sales of land have been reported in our vicinity during the past month. It is to be hoped that these are bonafide sales for development, and not for speculation. We need more houses in our district, and the need is "NOW." Many people are looking for houses in order to move into our district, which appeals to them. The best citizen is the one who takes enough interest in his own house.

The carpenters of Victoria are expecting to have a brisk time during the coming summer. In order to take advantage of this they are taking steps to demand $8.00 per day. This is good news for our locality. Every restriction placed on building houses in the cities, high wages, permits for all sorts of work, all tend to send the home-seeker to the country, where he can build a home in keeping with his pocket-book.

The head officials of the government liquor services of the various western provinces recently met on the prairie. From the reports of their doings in the daily papers it seems their idea of "Government Control" is to devise ways and means of making more money out of the trade. In no way do they seem to differ from the old-time saloon keeper. It is queer how the ideas of "Government Control" have changed since its inauguration.

It has been suggested that the B.C. government take over the business of selling tobacco. This would place them on the same as the French Government. But if they would sell the same grade of tobacco the less said the better.

TIT - BITS from the NORTH SAANICH SOCIAL CLUB

The officers of the club have been very worried lately at the thin appearance of some of the married men of the club. However, upon enquiry we find this is only a passing spasm. We are told that "Mrs. Wifey A was so busy practising McIntyre checkers with Mrs. Wifey B that they both forgot to cook hubby's dinner." It is a shocking state of affairs, but as the checker tournament starts on Wednesday of this week, we hope to see our married men soon regain their former rotundity.

On Saturday 11 tables of 500 were in play at the club hall, the prizes being won by Mrs. McLean and Mr. Kelly Sangster. After refreshments the club orchestra tuned up and the merry makers indulged in various dances, new and old, until midnight.

The next meeting of the ladies' auxiliary of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Nunn, on Thursday, March 11th, at 2 p.m. It is hoped that all ladies will keep this date in mind and try, if possible, to attend the meeting.

When dealing with our advertisers kindly mention the Sidney and Islands Review.

The New home of Mr. A. S. War-render, Roberts' Bay, is nearing completion.

Mrs. Hill, Third St., who has been in Victoria with friends for some time, returned home this week.

Tenders for underdraining the Sidney and North Saanich War Memorial Park are being held over to March 6th (Saturday). Anyone wishing to send in a tender may do so up to that date.

Mount Newton Lodge No. 89, A.F.
& A.M. intend holding their annual ball on Friday, April 9th, in the Agricultural Hall, Saanichton. A strong committee is in charge of the affair and an enjoyable time is expected.
Tickets are now procurable.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McTavish have moved from Thomas Cross Road to the East Saanich Road, Keating,
where they will in future reside.
Mr. McTavish held a sale last Wednesday of farm implements, stock, etc., which was very successful.

The regular monthly meeting of the Sidney Board of Trade will be held on Tuesday evening, March 9th.
Mr. J. P. Forde, district engineer, Public Works Dept., will be the speaker for the evening. Members are requested to bring their friends as the meeting will be exceptionally interesting.

Galiano Island Locals

Special to the Review

The piano for the hall arrived on Friday from Vancouver.

Children's service will be held in the school house Sunday, March 7th.

Captain Gilmour and Mr. C. Twiss returned Saturday from Vancouver with the Kelvin in tow.

Miss York returned from Vancouver on the Otter after a visit to relatives.

Pender Locals

Special to the Review

Mrs. John Allan, of Victoria, spent last week visiting friends on the Island.

Mrs. Joe Simpson and son, Dick, left for Victoria Saturday, 27th,
where they spent a few days.

Mr. Thomas Thompson is again on the Island and will spend a few weeks assisting Mr. P. G. Stebbings.

Messrs. Claude Conery and Roy Adams spent a few days in Vancouver, buying equipment for their logging camp.

Mr. A. H. Menzies spent a few days in Victoria last week, having been a delegate to the meeting of United Church Presbytery.

A dance was held in the Hope Bay Hall on Friday evening, the 26th, in honor of the new bride, Mrs. J. B.
Aitken. A crowd of friends came from Mayne and Ganges and all joined heartily in the dancing until half-past twelve, after which delicious refreshments were served by the ladies. Mrs. Newham, mother of the bride, acted as hostess for the event.

F. Henderson.

Mrs. Stanley Robson went over to Galiano to attend the memorial service for Mrs. Cayzer on Sunday.

Mrs. Naylor was a visitor in Victoria this week, where she went to buy furniture for her new hotel.

Mr. Fred Robson shipped nine head of jerseys from his accredited herd to the mainland by the S.S.
Otter today.

Guests at Grand View Lodge are:
Major Godfrey, Ernest Ware,
George Locke Peddon, D. W. Berster, L. F. Buckett, L. J. Hocking.

A gay party of about 18 went over to Hope Bay, Pender Island, on Friday evening for a dance. Mr. Oswald New called for them in time for milking next morning.

There was a public meeting to decide on the exhibition program for next August held at the hall on Tuesday. Owing to the bad weather there were not very many present, but some suggestions were made and some who were unable to be present sent suggestions by mail.
